Diary 31, 1919 January 4	1919. After an all day contest on the floor of the House yesterday on the effort to adopt the Report of the Elections Committee No 1. in my favor, in the Alaska Contest the fight was again carried on today. After Sulzer finished unanimous consent was given that I be allowed to address the House for an hour - which I did (see Congressional Record). Others for and against and the fight became exciting - my opponents finally made a Motion to Re-Commit, the Report to the Committee for further investigation, while my friends moved to adopt the Report. The arguments continued to be so late
Diary 31, 1919 January 4	4 an hour that the House on motion set the matter for Vote on Monday at the convening. My, but the fight is bitter, and the Democrats being in the majority seem determined to make it a party matter - The Chairman of the Committee, Wilson of La. is humiliated at the fierce assaults on him &amp; seem weak in his attitude. I fear if the report is recommitted it will be fatal to my interests &amp; we are doing what we can to hold the Republicans solid and to get a few Democrats to stay with the Democratic Chairman of their own Committee - but we are not sure of doing it. There are even some weak Re-s - who do not like me.
Diary 31, 1919 January 5-7	-5- Sunday - Am very much disturbed about the result in my Contest. It is not safe - there are quite a number of Democrats who will support me - but are there enough? [clipping] Wickersham wins                  Against Sulzer                  In national house                  Washington, Jan. 7. -- (I.N.S.) -- Charles A.

	Sulzer, Democrat, former resident of New Jersey and brother of "Bill" Sulzer, one time governor of New York, was unseated as congressional delegate from Alaska by the house this afternoon by a vote of 224 to 64. Sulzer's Republican opponent, James Wickersham, was seated in his place. Since his election on Nov- 7, 1916, Sulzer literally fought efforts to unseat him on charges of election frauds. -6- Monday.  Theodore Roosevelt died at his home in New York this morning &amp; the House adjourned immediately out of respect to him – so my Contest goes over until tomorrow. -7- Victory. The house of Representatives today seated me by a vote of 229 for me and 64 for Sulzer. I was then sworn in and the Alaska Contest of 1916 is ended.

Also telegram from Tozier, Fairbanks about reported resignation of Marshal Erwin.
Diary 31, 1919 January 15-16	-15th continued. John F. Ballaine reports that he had a “set to” today with Secretary Franklin K. Lane, over mismanagement &amp; waste in Alaska Railroad. Senators Chamberlain &amp; Walsh were with him &amp; he says he told Lane many facts that surprised the Senators &amp; caused them astonishment, etc. But John is such an exaggerator! (with one “g”.) -16- Edes &amp; Christenssen, the first the head of the Alaska Engineering Com. &amp; the second the Townsite Manager, called to see me today - I was out. Evidently Ballaine's statement to Lane has steered them to action. Congressman Albert Johnson &amp; wife &amp; Mr. &amp; Mrs. Stenton, took dinner with us tonight - played cards at hotel afterward.
Diary 31, 1919 January 17	-17- Christensen, townsite manager on the Govt. Rd. called today &amp; found me in. I talked very frankly to him, knowing he would carry my statements directly back to Lane, about the failure of the Secretary to make good in Alaska Transportation. I went over the points in the letter which I am writing to Lane (though I did not tell him that I was writing it) about his failure in that work. I criticized Alaska Eng. Com. caustically &amp; blamed them with waste and bad administration in the building of the road. I knew he came to find out what I was doing &amp; saying - &amp; he found it out plainly - &amp; will report the whole conversation to Lane!

Diary 31, 1919                  January 19-21	-19th – Sunday - Worked in office all day. -20- Today in the House I objected to the passage of a                  bill providing for making homestead entries on                  Coal, Oil &amp; Gas land surface in Alaska. I am                  opposed to the reservations of all kinds on the                  same tract of land - 4 estates in one, and lessees                  of the Govt. in possession of each - seems to be to                  be entirely unnecessary - hence I opposed the bill                  &amp; Mann, of Illinois, the Republican leader objected                  for me &amp; the bill went off the Calendar. -21- Busy in office work.

Diary 31, 1919 January 24-25	24 I can imagine that these Seattle fellows will "throw a fit" when they get that telegram, for the do not want any investigation of the Alaska Rd. - they have received too much of the wastage themselves, - and then how they hate Ballaine! -25th - Before House Com. on Pub. Diary 31, 1919 January 26	-26th - Debbie &amp; I took lunch today with Mr. &amp; Mrs. [Will Southard] in their apartment on K &amp; 18th N.W. He has been sick a long time, and in St Elizabeths Hospital for Insane - but he is not insane - only thoroughly broken down with hard work - He is now getting better - they reside in Seattle &amp; he was years ago one of our C. St. friends in Tacoma. We are greatly pleased to see him coming back to health. We had Senator &amp; Mrs. Jones &amp; Senator and Mrs. Poindexter with us tonight for dinner, - and a pleasant dinner it was. After dinner the Senators came over to my office &amp; I read them my letter to Secretary Lane - denouncing his administration of the Govt. Railroad in Alaska.
Diary 31, 1919 January 26-27	26 They remained for over two hours going over the condition of the project, and finally suggested that I send the letter to him at once - that it is necessary to start the investigation of the expenditure of the appropriations rather than let it come from outsiders. I shall get it ready tomorrow, but I think I will submit it to Judge Houston of Tennessee, Chairman Com. on the Territories before I send it to Lane. -27th - Have the Lane letter ready. Saw the War Department today about Alaska soldiers - many telegrams from them demanding discharge - but cannot get it done by class - but will by individual cases. Diary 31, 1919 January 27-28	27 E.H. Jenkins, just discharged from Camp Grant, Rockford, Illinois, came here today as

	representative of the Alaska Soldiers there &amp; will assist me.                  The matter of the confirmation of Roth, Dist. Atty. &amp; Bunnell, District Judge, came before Senate Judiciary Committee today &amp; was referred to a sub-committee - Overman, Walsh &amp; Sterling. It's a bad committee for us - 2 politicians.                  -28th -                  Am holding up my letter to Sec. Lane for fear of a row over it stopping passage of my Reso. curing defects in Mining law assessments, etc. also Juneau Pub. Bldg. bill. Diary 31, 1919                  January 29	-29th -                  [clipping]                  PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS                  AND COMMITTEES IN BRIEF                  {28th} SENATE                  Met at noon and recessed at 4:50 p.m. until noon today.                  Action on the renomination of Judge Charles E. Bunnell and District Attorney R.F. Roth, of Fairbanks, Alaska, has been held up for investigation at the request of Senator Jones of Washington, who charges both officials with pernicious political activity.                  Evidently Senator Jones got busy.                  Gave James Frawley letter to Atty. Genl. - he is candidate for appointment as Dist. Atty. at Nome.                  [ clipping]                  OFFICIALS' NAMES HELD UP.                  Political Activities Charged                  Against Alaskans.                  Action on the President's renomination of Federal Judge Charles E. Bunnell of Fairbanks, Alaska, has been held up in the Senate at the request of Senator Jones of Washington, republican, who said that if possible he intended to prevent confirmation because of alleged political activities, particularly in the recent Sulzer-Wickersham contest for the seat in the House as delegate from Alaska.                  Both officials were named for reappointment in December and the Senate judiciary committee ordered a favorable report. Now, at Senator Jones' request, the committee has revoked its action and appointed a subcommittee, headed by Senator Overman of North Carolina, to hear the Washington senator's objections.

	unquestioned. This, apparently, under the present conditions, is not probable or even possible. Congress has had one experience with a delegate who held his seat and drew his salary and mileage for the term for which he was supposed to be elected, only to discover at the end of the term that he was not entitled to his seat. His successful competitor for the seat gained a victory, empty so far as its political results were concerned and made manifest only by the payment of his salary and mileage. Now the prospects are that this routine will be carried through congress a second time. once more the same candidates are divided by a few votes, and whoever is declared elected by the Alaskan canvassing board is certain to have the result contested in congress. It requires no ponderous knowledge of human nature to realize that these political squabbles brought to the floor of congress will have a tendency to minimize the seriousness with which congress will regard affairs in Alaska generally. If the present conditions continue, Alaska will come to be a sort of congressional nuisance and will receive less and less consideration. Alaska should be able to regulate its internal political affairs so that it can come before the nation with a solid front. And this should be brought about by the elimination of personal policies and prejudices. It might be better for Alaska if both Mr. Sulzer and Mr. Wickersham should withdraw from politics and give their supporters a chance to start anew. There must be other men in Alaska as competent as they, without their personal following and personal enemies.

Diary 31, 1919 February 10	-10- Sec. Lane has sent in an additional Estimate asking for about $9,000,000 in addition to and in excess of the authorized $75,000,000 for the Alaska Railroad construction. Unfortunately the original act of March 12, 1914, limits the authorization to $35,000,000 and in consequence the appropriation estimated for, so far as the excess is concerned, would be subject to a point of order, &amp; might throw out the whole appropriation - even the valid $4,000,000 remaining without further authorization. So, I have just drawn &amp; introduced both a bill &amp; a H.J. Reso. to amend the original bill by taking off the limit. We will probably get the $4,000,000 for this year!!
Diary 31, 1919 February 10-11	10 Have also drawn today a Report for Chairman Frank Clark Pub. Bldgs &amp; Grounds recommending the passage of H.R. 14674, "A bill to increase the cost for the construction of the U.S. Public Building at Juneau, Alaska" - $450,000. -11th - Worked all day an assisting Alaskan Soldiers to get discharged from Army. At the War Dept. &amp; then in sending telegrams &amp; letters. It's a job! Am quite satisfied my bill for suspending Asst. work on Mining claims - also Curative Act will pass. Dr. Foster, Ill., Chairman Com. on Mines &amp; Mining agreed to get it through on next Monday - I hope so!

Diary 31, 1919 February 12-14	-12th - Working in office - on Exceptions to Tentative Report of Shipping Board finding against Alaska Shippers on Alaska Rate Investigation. -13- Same as yesterday. Sent $1250.00 N.Y. draft to Dexter Horton Nat. Bank Seattle, in payment of my note for that sum - due 17th. -14th - Same as yesterday. Prof. Henry W. Elliott is assisting me in the office for a month - preparing my scrap book - indexing it etc. Also Hugh A. Morrison is working at odd hours on bringing my Alaskan Bibliographical card index up to date &amp; finishing it etc.
Diary 31, 1919 February 15-16	-15th - Same as yesterday. Telegram from Marshall, my Atty, Juneau, saying Sulzer will get the Certificate of Election by small plurality - but will have a good case for contest. No figures &amp; seems not finished - but Marshall concedes defeat. -16th - Mrs. U.G. Meyers, wife of my friend U.G. Meyers, from Eagle, Alaska who was drowned on the "Princess Sophia" last fall in Lynn Canal is here to see me about her husbands estate etc. She is staying at our hotel with Mrs. Wickersham. Have gone over her matters fully today - nothing much except nervousness &amp; want of familiarity with business matters.
Diary 31, 1919 February 17	-17th - Have spent the day in the House waiting for the Alaska Bill suspending Asst. work on Mining Claims &amp; curing defects in prior acts. Got it passed about 7 oclock. Apparently my letter to Lane has stirred up the Seattle monkeys - McPherson, Sec. Alaska Bureau Seattle Chamber of Commerce got here tonight &amp; others are coming. Explained to him the parliamentary situation in the request of Sec. Lane for more money than is authorized by the Rd. Act. of March 12, 1914; Sec. 2, of that Act limits the authorization for Appropriations to $35,000,000 &amp; $31,000,000 have been expended - the remaining $4,000,000 is all - until Congress shall authorize more by a special act increasing the authorization.
Diary 31, 1919 February 18-19	-18th - The general Coal, Oil &amp; Gas Bill, with amendments favorable to Alaska came before the House today on the Conference Report. A hard fight was made against it - and I assisted in supporting it - made a short speech in its support. See the Record of this date.

	The Com. on Pub. Bldgs. favorably reported my Juneau item today. -19th - Finished my Bill of Exceptions to Tentative Report in Alaska Rage Investigation pending before U.S. Shipping Board &amp; filed it with Board. Also put the Juneau Pub. Bldg. bill on Unanimous Consent Calendar - will try my best to get it through this Congress.
Diary 31, 1919 February 20-22	-20th - Same as yesterday. Working to get affairs in office up so I can get away west Mch. 4th -21st- Same as yesterday. -22- Sundry Civil Appro. bill carried my appropriation for the Public building item at Cordova. Much intense interest in Congress over Pres. Wilson's League of Nations idea - strong opposition growing. Darrell is here paying us a final visit before we start west. Mave Olds is in New York, trying to get away to Europe in YMCA war work. Have just today filled out a list of questions vouching for her loyalty etc.
Diary 31, 1919 February 23-24	-23rd. Sunday - good visit with Darrell - who went home at midnight to New York - here he is in charge of the Naval Recruiting Station etc. -24- Stafford, of Wis. will not let me get the Juneau public building item up - without objection. Have had the great mountain sheep head Ovis Dalli, which Jack Dalton killed on the headwaters of the Tanana &amp; gave me, cleared &amp; measured. It is the record head in the list. Length of horn - 38 1/4 inches          Around the base - 15 3/4 "          Spread, tip to tip, 32 " On two measurements it beats the record head of the world, owned by the King of England.
Diary 31, 1919 February 25	-25- Much interest in fight for the office of Speaker in the next Congress. Mann. of Ill. &amp; Gillette of Mass. are the two principal candidates. The Gillett forces meet in my office for work - while I do not take any personal interest in the fight, because I cannot vote &amp; may not be in the next House. Many of my friends are for Gillett etc. Am haunting the house, Waiting for the Sundry Civil Bill with Alaskan Ry &amp; other items - so as to be on hand in case of criticisms. I do not want the Appropriation defeated - not even if there is waste &amp; politics in the force doing the work!

Diary 31, 1919 February 26	-26th - Alaska Ry. item in Sundry Civil Bill provoked discussion and much criticism. A statement was put in the Record for Lane, attempting to answer my criticisms in letter of Jany 8 but it was careful to evade the most serious criticisms. I did not know, during the debate, what his statement contained and was careful to make my remarks conservative - but I asked leave to revise &amp; extend my remarks in the Record &amp; if on reading his statement I find it needs that sort of treatment I can put in the Record so much of my letter, in the form of a speech as seems necessary.
Diary 31, 1919 February 27	-27- Lane's statement put in the Record last night is innocuous - it makes as good a defense for his work as he can, but refrains from mentioning me in a personal way - he avoids the most of my criticisms by silence - I shall put my remarks in the Record just as I made them last night without any additions from the Letters - or further attacks. I do not want to kill the appropriation or prevent the completion of the road - he has had notice, now , of waste etc. and may come to the front &amp; complete it in a business like way. Hope so.
Diary 31, 1919 February 28	-28th - After having just about given up the bill increasing the appropriation for the Juneau Capital - I found today that the Senate was wrangling - counting time - calling the calendar - so I urged Senator Jones vigorously to adopt a plan suggested by me &amp; with my assistance we got the bill considered by agreement in writing passed around - to approve it - got a unanimous report - &amp; in the turmoil Senator Jones asked for its consideration &amp; the bill passed the Senate within an hour after we went to work on it! Senator Jones was delighted - but it is now up to me to get it through the House - and there the trouble lies but I have a plan &amp; will go to work on it in the morning!
Diary 31, 1919 March 1	-Mch 1st- Congress is in a turmoil - the President is attempting to put over his League of Nations idea, and the Senate is in strong opposition - the day of adjournment is nigh &amp; the pressure for passing small bills - even the larger ones - is overwhelming. I am trying to get the Juneau public building through the N. Carolina Contest Case occupied today - until 11 oclock tonight. Am anxious to pack up and go home. -Mch 2nd - Sunday - but House of Reps. in session under legislative date, of yesterday - I am also working in office &amp; trying to get packing done - everything is

	crowded.
Diary 31, 1919 March 3	Mch 3rd Congress met at 11 a.m. today &amp; will run through tonight and until tomorrow at 12am.                  Speaker Clark has agreed "sometime" to recognize me to get up the Senate bill for the increase in the Juneau public building appropriation &amp; I sat all day and all night waiting.  But - there is a deadlock on in the Senate - &amp; in the House to prevent the passage of the Appropriation Bills - so as to compel the President to call an Extra Session of the next Congress at once! and no bill can be got through except by unanimous consent!!
Diary 31, 1919 March 4	Mch 4th The House continued in session all night - with the leaders constantly filibustering &amp; killing time.                  Adjourned for two hours this morning for breakfast &amp; then back for the final breakup. I have tried in vain to get up the Alaska Pub Bldg. bill - it is dead - Stafford of Wis. refused to let it come up by unanimous consent. Walsh of Mass &amp; Moore of Penn. talked "rat" for hours - when it could have been passed - &amp; killed it and many other good bills - Too bad, for Alaska needs it - &amp; I wanted to get it through before I got out of Congress!
Diary 31, 1919 March 5-9	March 5- Am packing &amp; getting ready to go home. -6th - Same as yesterday. -8- Got everything packed etc. &amp; left finishing touches with George A. Diary 31, 1919 March 13-14	-13- Took the night train &amp; came to S.F. am at Palace Hotel.

	-14- Was given a private dinner by the Chamber of Commerce &amp; talked Alaska coal to them for an hour. Capt Robert Dollar, transportation man &amp; president big steamship Co. &amp; others present. - they were greatly interested in my proposition of bringing coal from Alaska to S.F. - but! Many Alaskans here - Bill McPhee &amp; about 40 more gave me an "Alaska Dinner" tonight - it was very enjoyable &amp; kept us up rather late - Go north tomorrow.
Diary 31, 1919 March 15-16	-15- This morning Bill McPhee called my attention to a note signed in my name by Henry T. Ray in Jan'y 1917, for $200. I told Bill that Henry had no authority etc. but luckily I had last months salary check for Henry - amt. $146. &amp; I paid that to Bill &amp; he agreed to make Henry pay the balance. Henry is "cultus" -16- Arrived in Portland. My old friend Gilmore - who ran for Delegate against me in 1910 was on the train &amp; we visited. Diary 31, 1919 March 19	19 the leading Alaska cannerymen called to see me, in company with Judge Shackelford, of Tacoma, and proffered me the job of a trip to Juneau, for the Pacific Steamship Co. as lobbyist to oppose the passage of an 8 hour law by the Legislature. They suggested that the SS. Co. would pay me $2000. for expenses etc. It was, I think, a cunning &amp; not too honest effort to prevent me from making further objection to an increase in SS. rates to Alaska, which goes into effect on tomorrow!          I told them firmly but without apparent anger that I would not accept any such service from the Pac. SS. 	Congress before Mch 4th - ended the Congress - the Alaska Ry. appropriation was in only one - the Sundry Civil - but since they all failed it is quite far fetched to declare that I defeated them for the purpose of defeating our appropriation! While I was interested I did not open the subject nor say much - he did the talking - I did however, go in &amp; talk to Parsons about it later &amp; he suggested he would "get next" to the reason by having a talk with Zipp at lunch at the Club, Monday.

Burns of the Democratic Territorial Committee last night issued a call for a Democratic Territorial convention to convene at Juneau May 2. It is provided that the primaries may be held and the delegates selected in such manner as the Divisional Committees may direct. The convention is called for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Delegate to Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Delegate Charles A. Sulzer. The election will be held June 3, according to announcement made Monday by Gov. Thomas Riggs, Jr. The call for a convention is as follows:                  The Call in Full Notice is hereby given that a Territorial Democratic Convention will be held at Juneau, Alaska, on the second day of May, 1919, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the Democratic party for the office of Delegate to Congress from the Territory of Alaska to be voted for at a special election to be hereafter called by the Governor of Alaska. Delegates to said convention will be chosen in such manner as may be designated by the Democratic Divisional Committees of each of the four Judicial Divisions of Alaska. Dated at Fairbanks, Alaska, this 22d. day of April, 1918. WILLIAM T. I telegraphed to Debbie asking if I could do anything for him if I went that way, enroute to Washington, D.C. Am getting my evidence etc. in shape &amp; will go on to Washington as fast as possible. Few Alaskans here now - Nome boat June 3.

He is a guest at the Frye. Mr. Wickersham is contesting the result of the November 5 election, which gave the late Charles A. Sulzer a lead of thirty-three votes over him. Mr. Wickersham was the Republican candidate, and

	Mr. Sulzer was the Democratic candidate.                  Mr. Sulzer died on April 15, but was declared elected by the canvassing board two days later, April 17. The office is therefore vacant at the present time. To elect a new delegate a special election has been called throughout the territory for June 3. A candidate in this election will be George Grigsby, who was a Democratic candidate in the last primaries. Mr. Wickersham says he will not be a candidate in this election, placing his entire faith in the contest proceedings. "All signs point to good times in Alaska this year," Mr. Wickersham said. "All soldiers are going back, and there will be immediate increase in all activities. " This stupid reporter finally got it about straight - but not quite.                  Got a letter from Debbie today dated the 19th - she says she does not want to go to Wash. with me! Also that Charles Hanson - Jen's husband is very sick &amp; she does not think he will live long. Attending to Contest matters &amp; looking after taxes on my City lots - taxes all paid.

Diary 31, 1919	[Inside back cover]  [Photograph] This is a photo of the first unit or building of the Alaska University, Agri College & School of Mines at Fairbanks – erected 1918. X
Diary 31, 1919 May 30- June 1	-30 th – 1919. May 30th, Decoration Day - St Paul this morning 3:30, Dubuque (East) Galena & Chicago at 9 p.m. Can get a good nights rest and lose no--.time if I remain here over night, So went to the " La Salle Hotel ," & took a room for the night. May 31 After a good nights sleep & rest took 10:30 Penn. Ry. train East. Pittsburg 10 <sup>30</sup> -June 1 st - Reached Washington this morning & went to Congress Hall Hotel - Sunday - tired - unpacking & meeting my friends.
Diary 31, 1919 June 2	-2 nd – Went systematically to work this morning - Indiana is the stronghold of organized Republicanism now - so I went to my friend Vestal of that state & gave him the outline of my Contest & what I thought ought to be done. We called in Merrill Moores, of same state & he consulted with us - we reached an agreement - We then went & found my Notice of Contest & Statement of Facts in the Clerks office & examined it. Then Moores & I hunted up Speaker Gillett & made the arrangement.
Diary 31, 1919 June 2	2 The Clerk of the House sent my Notice & Statement to the Speaker & it was referred to Elections Com. No. 3, of which Dowell, of Iowa, is Chairman - & the race is on! Vestal will now organize the Republicans so that when Grigsby gets here with his certificate of election, we can get him held up till my Contest of the Nov. 5, 1918 election is settled - so that he cannot be sworn in & take his seat until after my Contest is settled - so far the matter is going along the line we want it - in accord with precedent.
Diary 31, 1919 June 2	2 [clipping] Contested-Election Cases Referred The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair finds on the Speaker's table the papers in an election contest case from Alaska and refers the papers, with all accompanying documents, to the Committee on Elections No. 3; also some papers in

	the Berger case, which are referred to the special committee having that case in charge. Election day in Alaska! My notice &amp; statement of Contest were sent to the Speaker by the Clerk of the House yesterday &amp; are in print today. See [clipping] 7. A letter from the Clerk of the House of Republicans transmitting a letter from Hon. James Wickersham, inclosing the original copy of a notice of contest and the petition and statement specifying particularly the grounds of his contest for a seat in the House of Republicans of the Sixty-Sixth Congress as Delegate from the Territory of Alaska (H. Doc. No. 74); to the Committee on Elections No. 3 and ordered to be printed. Engaged in consultations with Vestal &amp; Moores. Mc Co of Indiana, &amp; studying the cases to determine, 1st, How to proceed to take my testimony in Alaska which I have not taken &amp; which must be given, if at all, by hostile witnesses, &amp; 2nd, How to prevent Grigsby from being seated on his certificate of Election - until my Contest is settled! Both are doubtful questions!
Diary 31, 1919 June 4	-4- Have been studying the law of the Contest Case today &amp; intend to make a fight to prevent Grigsby's Certificate of Election from being accepted as prima facie evidence of his right to a seat pending the settlement of the contest - on the ground that it will be issued under the Alaska Act, without a final canvass and count of the official Returns - that's the law! Wrote nice letter to Debbie tonight - Vestal, of Indiana, promises to assist in charge of my fight - the Ind. Delegation is friendly. Things look better now that I am getting settled &amp; rested &amp; can think clearly &amp; study the law &amp; the facts.
Diary 31, 1919 June 5-6	-5- Same as yesterday - there are some serious questions of law involved in my case - account of death of Sulzer, Contestee &amp; no one on whom to serve papers. There is enough doubt to make it an interesting case &amp; to keep me busy to cure the defects. -6th - Went down to the War Dept. &amp; applied for a certificate showing that the 41 soldiers who voted in Alaska for Sulzer were enlisted in the States - etc. to establish their status as non-residents. Will get it in a day or two. - then the question is how go get their testimony as to how they voted.

Diary 31, 1919 June 6	6 Death of Charlie Hanson – my sister, Jennie's, husband. [Telegram]                  Los Angeles Calif. Poor
Diary 31, 1919 June 6	6 Charlie was a fine man - a man of high business ability, the strictest honor and integrity a good father and my very dear friend. I am greatly shocked at his death for when I saw him in Los Angeles in March I thought he would recover. Also received a telegram from my attorney, J.B. Marshall, Juneau, Alaska, saying that Grigsby defeated Jones.                  Grigsby less than 3000.                  Jones about 1500. Since I received more than 4400 votes in Nov. Grigsby does not have anything to boast about - though he received more than I anticipated.
Diary 31, 1919 June 7-8	-7th - [clipping]                  Democrat Seems Winner in Alaska.                  JUNEAU, Alaska, June 6.-- Except at Ketchikan, George Grigsby, democrat, apparently is proving an easy winner over E.O. Jones, labor candidate in the election held Tuesday for territorial delegate to Congress to succeed the late C.A. Sulzer, democrat. Am busy studying the law points involved in How to get additional testimony in my Contest Case - &amp; how to make good that taken ExParte. -8th - Sunday. Visit from Maurice D. Leehey, Seattle Atty. engaged by Gov. Riggs &amp; the Territorial Shipping Board to formulate plans for steamship line to Alaska - or to secure relief from present excessive rates. Much to his surprise I was friendly &amp; offered to assist him in the work - glad to get it off my hands!!
Diary 31, 1919 June 9-10	-9th - Visited Adj. Genl. &amp; Judge Advocate Genl. about a plan to get the testimony of the Alaskan soldiers who voted for Sulzer Nov. 5, 1918.                  Think tonight I have the plan worked out &amp; have prepared an application to the House of Reps.

	asking for more time &amp; certain new rules, also combining the two contests the election of Nov. 5, 1918 and the special Election of June 3, 1919. -10- Preparing Application for time to present additional testimony which must be approved by a House Reso. passed by the House - making Grigsby party - consolidating case
Diary 31, 1919 June 11	-11th - Finished my application for time, consolidating cases, etc. Congressman Vestal, of Indiana, introduced Reso. for me. It affords a fair plain of taking testimony, consolidating both Alaska cases &amp; enabling us to get the testimony fairly. Got certificate from War Dept. today, showing 40 soldiers who voted in Alaska against me, Nov. 5, 1918, were not residents of Alaska, and were illegal voters under the rule laid down in the 1st Alaska Contest - Wickersham v Sulzer - they are the same soldiers (in part) who cast those illegal votes.
Diary 31, 1919 June 12-13	-12- To our surprise we find the parliamentarian referred the Vestal Reso. for extension of time in Alaska Contests, to the Judiciary Com. instead of to the Elections Com. No. 3, where the case is referred. We are now trying to "unscramble the Eggs." -13- We are making an effort to get the Vestal Resolution away from the Judiciary Com. &amp; referred to the Elections Com. No. 3, where it belongs. The Chairman of the Jud. Co. &amp; members have today agreed to the change. -13th continued - Vestal tells me that he talked
Diary 31, 1919 June 13	13 to Champ Clark, the Democratic leader, about changing the Reso. to the Com. on Elections &amp; that he agreed, but, he added, "Wickersham stands no more chance of being seated in this contest than a snowball in hell!" But we've got the affidavit for time &amp; the Reso. etc. sent to the Com. on Elections &amp; I hope for a square deal. It seems Grigsby is writing letters to the Republican members &amp; I am getting my friends busy heading off his "jury fixing." Recd. letter today from Speaker Gillett authorizing me to occupy my old "Room 167" &amp; I am situated there now working on my Contest!
Diary 31, 1919 June 14-15	-14th - Same. Working on contest. -15- Sunday. Wrote letters of condolence to my sister Jennie &amp; to A. G. Hanson - Charlies brother - for

	him &amp; his mother, &amp; also letters to Debbie &amp; Darrell.                  Poor Jen will find a great difference now - with her good indulgent husband dead - it will cut her income down sadly &amp; she and the children will have to resort to habits of economy they have never been acquainted with before. I am very sorry about his death - he was a good citizen &amp; a better father &amp; friend.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 16	-16th - Recd. telegram from John Rustgard today saying: JUNEAU, ALASKA, JUNE 14, '19                  James Wickersham, House Office Bldg.                  Wash. D.C. Certificate of Election issued to Grigsby today upon telegraph returns some larger centers and no returns from smaller precincts.  Grigsby left last night for Washington.  John Rustgard Also received letter and Copy Bunnells opinion etc. from Henry T. Ray, Fairbanks. Its a good letter and he gave me some much needed information about the Soldier vote there. The case looks better to me &amp; I can certainly make a good showing.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 17-18	-17- Am preparing objection &amp; Brief in support against the House accepting Grigsby's Certificate of Election &amp; seating him pending the Contest. I ought to win on the Objection - but you can never tell.                  Good letter from Darrell - New York. -18th - The House Com. on Elections No 3. was in session on my application for more time etc. today [clipping] Little Helen stood watching the funeral cortege of a prominent office holder in the city.                  "Oh, mamma, I'm so sorry for him."                  "Yes, Helen, we are all sorry. His family will be very lonely."                  "I'm not being sorry for his wife and I'm not being sorry for his children."                  "Why, Helen!"                  I'm just being sorry for the man because he's lost his job now, and he had such a hard time getting elected."                  {Poor Sulzer!} E.M.W. The Com. did nothing but talk &amp; - I think - laid the matter over to await the arrival of Grigsby so they could say they were fair!

Diary 31, 1919 June 19	-19- Dowell, Chairman Com. Elections 3, told me today they would meet again on Monday & try &amp; do something . Have prepared "Objections" & the statement of Facts & the Law - to assist my Republican friends in preventing Grigsby from being seated till the Contest is fought out! Am not sure I can get it done, though the facts & law are both clearly with us - Understand Champ Clark is to lead the fight against me - he's some fighter & I am therefore busy - for nothing stirs me up more than the idea that the other fellow is strictly on the job and working. Busy this afternoon in Ans. letters etc.
Diary 31, 1919 June 20	-20- Have my objections to Grigsby's Certificate of Election finished - printed 20 copies & ready to deliver to that many of my friends & supporters in the House tomorrow morning. My friend Vestal of Indiana will represent me in the matter for the objections to seating Grigsby must come from a Member. He is not here yet but I expect him, now, any day & Clark will of course try to seat him on his Certificate - which we hope to prevent - anyway I will bring a contest against him & his Cert. of Election & thus finally present it for adjudication later.
Diary 31, 1919 June 21	-21st - Delivered copies of my Objection & Brief on the law to prevent Grigsby from being sworn in as Delegate to 20 members this morning - including Speaker, Mondell, Vestal, Moores, Knutson, Winslow, Gurn of Iowa, Fess, McCulloch, Madden, Walsh, Dowell, Rodenberg, Longworth, -Moore of Penn, Dallinger & Mason of Ill. This is all I can do in the matter for the real objection must come from a Member who will make the fight on the floor - & my friend Vestal, of Ind. agrees to attend to it on the floor. Sent out official copies of my Notice of Contest, etc. to Morton E. Stevens, Fairbanks; J.L. Reed, Valdes; John B. Marshall, Juneau, and Forest J. Hunt, Ketchikan.
Diary 31, 1919 June 22-24	-22- Recd. letter this morning from Hon. Fredk. W. Dallinger, M.C. & the Chairman of Elections Com. No 1, suggesting that I prepare Notice of Contest at once against Grigsby - & I have spent this day in drafting it - Have it ready for typing & will get Jeffery to do that. -23- Meeting of Election Com. No. 3, on my case - Champ Clark requested Com. to postpone action on Reso. No. 105, introduced by Vestal, of Ind. for

	me, till Grigsby could reach Washington - I could not object &amp; the matter was postponed.                  -24-  Finished, signed &amp; verified Notice of Contest against Grigsby in the 2nd Alaska contest now pending. My friends are studying the case - but Mondell is pulling back.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 25-26	-25th -                  On the theory that this is my last day for taking testimony in the Case against the Nov. 5, 1918 contest, I am making my affidavit to file with the Clerk of the House.                  I am covering whole case and attaching many exhibits etc. to it, and trying to do it so full that if House does not order any further time to take testimony I'll have a basis of a case any way!                  Have dictated a long affidavit &amp; will sign &amp; swear to it tonight. Have it all done in good shape.                  -26-                  Completed shaping my deposition this morning - took it to Vestal, M.C. from Ind. who read it carefully &amp; approved it - filed.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 26	26                  At the supper table this evening at the hotel Mattison, the Seattle Times reporter told me that Grigsby is in town at the Washington Hotel - that he came to the City last night &amp; had been in consultation today with Champ Clark and the Democratic committee! Well, now that I have my affidavit made and filed in the Sulzer case I have time to attend to George, and will serve my Notice of Contest against him tomorrow, and get his case under way.                  Vestal, of Ind- read my testimony before it was filed today &amp; seemed satisfied with its character.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 27	-27-                  Gave Pickering, of the Rep. Majority Room, copies of my Notice's of Contest in both the Sulzer &amp; Grigsby cases for service on Grigsby - this morning but the last I heard from him he had not found the defendant for service - he will, of course, and then both cases will be finished as far as I can go immediately. The Elections Com. will now probably act on the Vestal Resolution No 105.                  Have been answering my correspondence &amp; catching up so that I can devote my time to the contests - told tonight that Democratic leaders say that Grigsby will not offer to take oath.
Diary 31, 1919                  June 28	-28-  Got service Notice of Contest on Grigsby - 2nd Contest - this morning.                  Republican leaders considering whether to object to his being sworn in.                  Mrs. Sulzer has been here since Congress opened trying to get an appropriation of $7,500 - a

	years salary as the wife of a deceased Congressmans wife - but I learn tonight from Maurice D. Lechey that she has, today, gone home to N.Y. - Mrs. S. has always been an ardent partisan of Champ. Clark &amp; the female members of his family - which is some explanation of his activity in her aid.                  Maurice D. Leehey, Atty. for Riggs &amp; the Alaska Shipping Scheme in to see me tonight - he is not getting anything done!
Diary 31, 1919                  June 29-30	-29- Darrell came over to Washington this morning at 11 oclock and visited with me all day, returning tonight on the midnight train. We saw the Baseball Game between Wash. &amp; Phil . teams, &amp; had a good game of cards in the evening. -30- Nothing much today - just waiting till the Republican leaders determine what they will do about seating Grigsby on his fraudulent certificate. Mondell and others insist that he must be seated while some of my friends urge objection - I do not know yet what they will do. Congress is trying to get the Appro. bills passed today - July 1 is beginning of new fiscal year.
Diary 31, 1919                  July 1	July 1st I am discouraged today at the conditions of my Contest Case. Mondell, of Wyo. Republican leader is against me and acts unfairly against me and for Grigsby, and other Republicans who do not know the facts, support him. Grigsby will be sworn in &amp; seated on his fraudulent Certificate of Election, and I will have to catch up &amp; get him out, sometime, - if I can. It puts me in bad, but I do not, really, lose my rights to a contest, though he gains very decided advantages - unfairly and in violation of the law. Of course I am permitted to carry on my Contests, with

If I can get the record made up I think I can lick 'em. Got a little additional evidence today from Marshall - Our case is all right if we can get the Republicans to give me a square hearing &amp; I guess we can get that.
Diary 31, 1919 July 3	3rd Long talk today with Dowell the Ch. of the Elections Com. No 3, having my case! He is a fair honest man - but was born lazy, and slow of thought. He cannot be made to understand that my witnesses are in Alaska - 5000 miles away - he seems to think they are here in my office. He cannot be made to know that I cannot take my evidence in 40 days - and he is against me on the Vestal Reso. &amp; thinks I ought to take all my evidence over again on Notice to Grigsby - Dowell agrees to call the Com. sometime next week to hear me &amp; Grigsby on the matter!!

Capital City Bureau,                  The Seattle Times,                  923 Colorado Building. WASHINGTON, Saturday, June 28. - If he were not busy right now making a fight to hold the seat in Congress that delegate from Alaska is entitled to, Judge James Wickersham probably would write a history of the Northern Territory - not a political tale, but the fascinating story of early discovery, Russian rule and the early days when only a few knew Alaska was not perpetually ice bound. Latter day affairs and politics, Judge Wickersham would be willing to dismiss with a chapter; the politics with a paragraph if he touched upon it at all.
Diary 31, 1919                  July 10-11	10 In his earlier life in Tacoma, Judge Wickersham used to delve into Indian lore and write historical papers on territorial days and the times even before Washington became a political unit. If memory serves correctly he wrote one of the first arguments Tacoma used to support the theory that the Indians once described the grandeur of Mount Rainier by using an adjective that early whites thought something like "Tacoma," "Tahoma," "Takobet," or something else. And he messed around considerably with early historical societies digging up traditions of the Northwest.                  Wickersham has been indulging himself freely in his latest hobby of collecting publications on Alaska

	and he insists he has the most complete library on the territory that is in existence. He has all the English books and most of those printed in other languages. Included in the Wickersham library on Alaska are four rare old Russian books descriptive of the early days of Russian occupancy. These never have been translated into English. "If I had time I would translate them myself, for it ought to be done," said Judge Wickersham, talking of his hobby. "The idea of publishing a real history on Alaska grows on me and I would like to have someone do the work. We ought to have at least one real history instead of the scattered works that very few persons ever have seen and probably nobody ever has read in their entirety. It would be a fascinating study to go over the stories of the early days and to clear away some of the myths of Russian occupancy." In the meantime the coming of George Griggsby, who was elected at the special election on June 3, probably will speed up the preparatory work for the contest over the Alaska seat in the House. Wickersham has gathered a great deal of his evidence and Griggsby probably has his records under way. But the contest is likely to be one of those long drawn out affairs that will not be settled until the session is well advanced. The last contest dragged until the close of the last session when Wickersham finally was seated. In the meantime, if Wickersham is doing anything further with his fight against Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane the fact is not apparent. In fact, Wickersham seems to be deeply interested in helping along the Alaska railroad appropriation for the completion of the road. -July 11th - Had the first hearing today before the Com. on Elections No 3, on my Alaska contested election Cases.

He made a strong case & may mislead the Com. into throwing out all my testimony & make me begin all over again. While that will be a matter of injury & expense to me I am prepared to do it if the Com. compels it. The Com. put the matter over till some time next week another week gone - & nothing done - But it cant be avoided for I think it best to get the matter fully before the Com. to begin on. submits a privileged report which will be printed and referred to the Committee of the Whole House. The gentleman asks unanimous consent that it be printed in the RECORD. Is there objection?

There was no objection.

The report is as follows:

Your Committee on Elections No. 3, having had under consideration House resolution 105, a resolution relative to the securing of evidence in the contested-election case of James Wickersham v. Charles A. Sulzer, Territory of Alaska, recommended that said resolution be amended in the following respects:

On page 1 of the printed resolution, amend by striking out, in line 9 the words "necessary additional," and by striking out, at the end of said line 9 and the beginning of line 10, the words "as near as may be."

On page 1, amend by adding, after the word "on" in line 2, the words "George B. Grigsby."

On page 1, amend by striking out, in lines 13 and 14, after the figure "3," the words "the candidate who is successful in said special election to" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "said George B. Grigsby shall."

On page 2, line 4, amend by striking out the word "to" and insert in lieu thereof the word "shall."

On page 2, amend by adding, after the word "rebuttal," in line 5, the word testimony."

On page 2, amend by striking out all of paragraph 5, which includes the figure "5," at the end of line 5, and all of lines 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, down to and including the semicolon following the word "witnesses."

Also amend by renumbering the paragraphs accordingly.

On page 2, amend by adding, after the word "candidate," line 19, the words "said George B. Grigsby."

On page 3, amend by adding after the word "on," line 5, the words "said George B. Grigsby."

On page 3, amend by adding after the word "which," in line 6, the words "said George B. Grigsby."

On page 3, amend by adding after the word "either," in line 8, the word "of."

On page 3, amend by striking out the words "and required," in line 10.

On page 3, amend by striking out the word "said," in line 11, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "the."

On page 3, amend by striking out the words "in the manner provided herein," in line 20.

On page 3, amend by striking out, in line 22, the comma, after the word "cause," and insert in lieu

	thereof a period; and by striking out all after the word "cause," in said line 22, and by striking out all of lines 23, 24, 25, and lines 1 and 2, on page 4, down to and including the word "and," in said line 2. On page 4, line 2, amend by inserting, before the word "the," in line 2, the figure "10" and by capitalizing the word "the." The committee recommends that said resolution so amended do pass. Mr. DOWELL. 	Sharpe attended and got such a good scoring as they will remember - The evidence went my way satisfactorily but Althouse, one of my best witnesses failed to come in - must send for him &amp; get his deposition later.
Diary 31, 1919 August 12-13	-12- Marshall went to Juneau on the Jefferson, but I remained to get Althouse's testimony &amp; others on Friday. Am on track of some good evidence &amp; intend to remain here and get it. -13th - Am giving notice of taking more testimony tomorrow - or Friday Have to telegraph to Rustgard at Juneau to give personal notice in writing there to Hellenthal - names of witnesses etc. then I have to issue subpoena here to witnesses &amp; compel them to appear before Notary Public when Grigsbys attorneys &amp; I examine them under oath etc.
Diary 31, 1919 August 14-15	-14- Giving notice to witnesses for tomorrow - raining. I have many kind friends and supporters here &amp; some very bitter political opponents. -15- Took testimony of Althouse, Oliver, Wakefield, &amp; others today before Winston, N. P. Evidence is good in strictly in support of the allegations of my Notice of Contest. Althouse's testimony especially was to the point, important and strong. Have established clearly &amp; positively frauds, by Mahoney &amp; Sharpe, U.S. Com. &amp; U.S. Dept. Marshal at Election - bad.
Diary 31, 1919 August 16-17	-16- Took testimony of Mr. J. M. Thomas &amp; Joe Ulmer, - good. I am thoroughly satisfied with the testimony here &amp; before I go have made arrangements with Arthur Sharp to appear for me &amp; cross-examine the witnesses of Grigsby taken here during his 40 days. Left Ketchikan this evening on the SS "Alameda" for Valdes. -17th - Col. Mears &amp; the Alaska Ry. Com. crowd on board boat bound for Seward - also Bishop Crimont Father Van Der Pol. &amp; many of my Alaska friends. Boat arrived at Juneau at 2 oclock p.m. &amp; I have spent
Diary 31, 1919 August 17	17 the afternoon with my attorneys Marshall &amp; Rustgard - took dinner with several of my friends. Recd. notice served by Hellenthal that Grigsby declines my offer to take testimony during the whole of the 90 days allowed by House Reso. 105, instead of 40 &amp; 40 &amp; 10 day periods. Also served notice on Gov. Riggs of Reso. No. 105 &amp;

	demanded that he forward election returns to Washington in strict compliance therewith. I am suspicious he is intending not to forward the returns! Riggs is on board Alameda going to Anchorage &amp; Railroad points!
Diary 31, 1919 August 18	-18th - The steamer has been at the Skagway wharf all day, from 7. a.m. to midnight, unloading freight, &amp; I have hunted old Skagway papers! Jack Kellar gave me the files of the "Interloper" &amp; the "Haines Pioneer Press," and also extra copies of the "Dyea Trail" &amp; some others. Also another friend has promised me many extra copies of the "Trail" &amp; the "Guide." Had dinner with Charlie Joynt &amp; his young wife - she is a nice good girl, and a clever cook. Riggs &amp; the Railroad experts went to the summit on the W.P. Ry - today - but did not invite me. It is an unfriendly crowd, but I grin &amp; bear it.
Diary 31, 1919 August 19-20	-19th - We left Skagway at midnight &amp; ran out of Icy Strait this morning. There is a gentle swell on &amp; I rolled the contents of my stomach overboard - it may do me good. -20- This morning we are off Cape St. Elias &amp; in a smooth sea - a cloudless sky gives us a grand view of the noble range of snow covered mountains to the East &amp; north. Before noon we ran into the entrance to Prince William's Sound, and just after noon we landed at Cordova. Saw Dr. Chase &amp; George Dooley &amp; gave Dooley a list of the persona whom Grigsby charges as illegal voters in Cordova. He went
Diary 31, 1919 August 20	20 over the names carefully &amp; declares they were all (except 2 or 3 whom he does not know) are long residents of Cordova and legal electors. One was in the hotel &amp; quickly made affidavit to his legal qualifications &amp; Dooley agrees to secure a verified statement from all he can find - He says the charge is false &amp; thinks we can "come back" hard with the proofs. Left the matter with Dooley &amp; Chase. Our boat left Cordova for Valdes at 7 p.m. Have had a long talk with Mr. A.R. Trachsel, about the development of Snug Harbor, &amp; coal &amp; iron mines near &amp; north of that place - He promises to work with me in the matter.
Diary 31, 1919 August 21	-21st - Have a fine corner room today in the Copper Block a beautiful sunny day - the mountains are beautiful Valdes looks good. Consulting with Reed, Ritchie &amp; other friends about taking depositions of Signal Corps men.

	Met new commander, Major Houston - seems to be a fine man &amp; offers any assistance in his favor. Sending telegrams to Seattle, Juneau, Fairbanks. Anchorage &amp; Nome starting my assistants in all those places to work getting evidence. This is a good vantage point from which to work, and I feel confident that I can get the evidence needed in the Contest.
Diary 31, 1919 August 22	-22nd - Ritchie &amp; Reed went over to Pt. Lisicum &amp; got information of illegal votes there Nov. 5 - Issued subpoena Is for D. H. Tyer &amp; wife &amp; Capt. Hewes who wish to go out on "Alameda" to appear tomorrow before Reed, Notary Public. Also sent long telegrams notice etc. to Fairbanks &amp; to Jack Wade about taking testimony of witnesses there in election frauds. Getting certified copies of records Nov. 5 election from office Clerk of Court - Wrote letter to Debbie.                  Busy also getting notices etc. to serve tomorrow
Diary 31, 1919 August 23	-23rd - Took depositions of Donald H. Tyer and his wife this forenoon. Tyer swore that he voted for me on last Nov. 5 - in which I am satisfied he committed perjury. Mrs. Tyer refused to say whether she had voted for Sulzer or me - &amp; I requested them to remain for further hearing next Thursday - hoping to get the evidence. After the hearings were ended I started to my rooms two blocks away - As I came to the S.E. corner of McKinley &amp; Reservation St. I saw some men there, and when I got close enough I recognized Diamond, Grigsbys lawyer as one of them.
Diary 31, 1919 August 23	23 He moved away as one of the men blocked my way and said to me: "You insulted my sister in your examination - she is over there crying." I answered as soon as my surprise would permit, "Who, no I did not insult you sister," and he answered, "You did &amp; she is over there crying now, and I am going to beat you up." I am not sure about this last expression - it may have been "smash your face," or some such form, but it meant an assault. Immediately he struck at me but as I have a square view with my left - or good eye - I sparred it - but he kept coming. The man by his side - at my right and blind side, said to him, "Hit
Diary 31, 1919 August 23	23 him - kill him - and as the fight progressed repeated "Kill the son of a bitch" - and the young pugilist did his best. I was on the outside edge of the sidewalk and either one of them pushed me off or I stepped off backwards &amp; stumbled - my right - blind side coming toward them, when the young

	man sprung at me quickly and struck me two or more heavy smashing blows on the right side of my face, beating out one of my back molar teeth &amp; badly bruising my face on that side.                  The last heavy blow knocked me down, but I soon got up - a man with a black coat, who I since
Diary 31, 1919                  August 23	23 learned was Cassler, deputy marshal - stood between us &amp; waved his hand to my assailants saying - "that will do," While the scrap was on, and after I got up the elder of my assailants kept encouraging the younger with the cry of "kill him" - kill the son of a bitch." I was so blind that I could not tell who he was - lie was on my right side - I am totally blind in my right eye - but the glimpse I had made me think it was Buck Hoyt of Gulkana, but I was then informed that the men were the Selby's father &amp; son, - the father &amp; brother of Mrs. Tyer, whom I had so recently examined.
Diary 31, 1919                  August 23	23 I went up to -Richie's office - no one came near me no one said a word. Richey soon heard of it &amp; came in &amp; we went down to my hotel - I called in Dr. Silverman. I was not hurt except on my right side - and on my head. My molar tooth - the back one on that side was broken square off - and my face on that side badly mauled up. My blind eye was black &amp; the ear &amp; jaw made very sore.                  I am informed that Selby is a much younger man than I that his son is 22 - and an athlete-and has just had a y years training in the Army. Diamond who was with
Diary 31, 1919                  August 23-24	23 them is Mayor of Valdes - Well it took three of them on my blind side to knock me out anyway - I feel sure I can lick them one at a time notwithstanding my 62 years &amp; blind eye - but I did not!                  -24th - My 62nd Birthday (1857 - 1919)                  Sick &amp; sore - a black eye - the blind one - and a smashed jaw - not a pleasant anniversary. Of course I cannot chew &amp; can hardly swallow liquids. My friends have urged me to have my assailants arrested, etc. etc. but after a night of painful consideration I think I can use the indictment to a better
Diary 31, 1919                  August 24	24 advantage, for every official here is either a partisan opponent ready to violate the law of homicide to injure me, or so far under the control of those as to be unwilling to assist in enforcing the law. The Signal Corps men are also pleased at my humiliation &amp; publicly express their feelings. I am satisfied beyond any doubt that Tyer, - one of them &amp; Selbys son in law - swore falsely and that others

	will do so in saying he &amp; they voted for me instead of Sulzer. I think it is a deliberate plan of their lawyer leaders to do me all the injury they can - they are now frightened at the thought of being prosecuted for illegal voting - a felony - &amp; think to bull doze me to quit.
Diary 31, 1919 August 25-26	-25- Still painfully ill &amp; confined to my room my right face is beaten badly &amp; particularly the jaw &amp; teeth. Am trying to keep track of my case in Fairbanks, Anchorage etc. as well as here, but find it a struggle! Many of my friends call to express their sense of humiliation at the outrage heaped on me by the Mayor of their town &amp; his mob of waylaymen. -26th - My face remains very sore &amp; I cannot masticate my food &amp; am obliged to take liquid food. I remain in my room &amp; do what I can to assist Richie in the case.
Diary 31, 1919 August 27-28	-27th - Have remained in my room all day - but sending telegrams etc. about taking testimony. Ray &amp; my friends at Fairbanks are having much trouble - the Signal Corps officers will not assist in securing depositions of men. -28th - We began taking testimony of our Valdes witnesses today. Ritchie, M<sup>c</sup>Hie Campbell, Simonds, Beck, Stewart, &amp; Mr. &amp; Mrs. Pete Cashman. I was sworn &amp; told my story of the assault also. We made a good record &amp; while I am yet sore I
Diary 31, 1919 August 28	28 think the real bad effect in the case is against my opponents. We did not put the Signal Corps men on the stand - Ritchie &amp; I gave the reasons in detail - that they evidently will not tell the truth but will add to their other perjuries by swearing they voted for me - so we gave our reasons for not calling them &amp; let them go. We also established already that out of 37 votes cast at Valdes Bay Precinct 5 of them were legal - of which I received 4 &amp; Sulzer 1 - the others were soldiers domiciled there for a short time &amp; they nearly all voted for Sulzer!
Diary 31, 1919 August 29	-29th - Resting - sore face getting better slowly pride no better. Col. Lenoir sent me two telegrams from Seattle - 1st saying could do nothing - 2nd saying that he had received orders to act &amp; do everything possible, etc. - but its too late - though I had his last telegram sent on to Ray!                  Sent telegram to Boyle, Anchorage, saying I was coming to Seward on the Northwestern tomorrow &amp; to Anchorage on first train. Am paying bills getting

	out record depositions etc.                  No letter from Debbie since I left Seattle - writing her my third now.
Diary 31, 1919                  August 30-31	-30- Same as yesterday- much telegraphing which costs money!                  Major Houston wrote me a letter today asking if I intended to take depositions of the men here &amp; I told him no. -31st - Left Valdes today at noon on the "Northwestern" for Seward. Beautiful clear day. Think I left everything at Valdes in as good shape as the ill feeling there against me will allow - As a matter of law practice I am not sure they hurt me much by the assault - though they certainly hurt my face.
Diary 31, 1919                  September 1	Sept 1st At the overland Hotel, Seward - boat in early this morning.                  About 9 o'clock my friend Ike Evans, U.S.- Dep. Marshal, came in to call &amp; talked with me a few minutes &amp; went out. In about half an hour Sexton came in &amp; told me Ike had been shot while attempting to arrest a man charged with some crime &amp; was in dangerous condition. It seems the man who shot him is suspicioned of having killed a woman at Anchorage &amp; sought to evade arrest. After shooting Evans the desperado ran out of town northward threatening those who sought to stop him - &amp; reached the forest &amp; is not arrested yet tonight.
Diary 31, 1919                  September 2-4	-2- Waiting for train to Anchorage.  Ike Evans died this morning from the shot through his lungs from the revolver of the desperado Dempsey -Cummings - Nichols - [real name is William Stewart] Every effort is being made to catch the murderer - but so far in vain. -3- Still waiting for train everybody here who has a gun is out looking for Dempsey. -4- Left Seward this morning at 3 o'clock on first train going to Anchorage since my arrival Ry. in bad shape - We had to walk two or three miles -- including all the tunnels &amp; climb ladders etc. etc. but finally got through to the tram
Diary 31, 1919                  September 4	4 on the other side of the construction gangs, &amp; reached Anchorage about 11-30 at night. Dr. Boyle met me &amp; I went to the Anchorage Hotel. We learn that the murderer Dempsey was captured near Seward yesterday - &amp; the body of the woman he is also supposed to have killed in Anchorage was found in an old abandoned well, near his

	house. Dempsey seems to be a real bloody murderer - without regard for the lives of others and intent on a display of his criminal ideas. Have had Dr. Boyle &amp; Dr. Rystrom - examine my teeth &amp; face where the Selby's struck me - am suffering -much pain therefrom.
Diary 31, 1919 September 5-7	-5- Have had Dr. Boyle &amp; Dr. Rystrom examine my jaw &amp; teeth - nothing but bruises &amp; disordered nerves which accounts for my neuralgia. Am staying in the room &amp; keeping hot water bottle etc. on jaw. -6th - Took testimony today before Thompson, notary Public, about Cache Creek &amp; Chickaloon frauds. I also added telegrams &amp; other data about failure of War Dept. to assemble Signal Corps men. -7- Sunday. Rainy &amp; I remained in my room &amp; read the magazines. This poor town is exceedingly quiet - dead!
Diary 31, 1919 September 8	8 Telegrams from Wash. D.C. announce that the Curry amendment authorizing the additional $17,000,000 needed to complete (?) the Govt. Railroad passed the House today - The telegrams are from Grigsby &amp; though the vote in the House was unanimous - it also appears that Delegate Grigsby assisted in the passage etc. On Saturday night I was invited to attend the Pioneers meeting - large attendance &amp; I make a brief talk -- gave them every encouragement about certainty of competition of Ry. &amp; opening of Matanuska coal mines by the Navy Dept. - everybody friendly etc.
Diary 31, 1919 September 9	-9th - Dr. &amp; Mrs. Beeson, called on me last evening - I appointed their son as cadet at Annapolis. The Anchorage times today had an interview with me in which I quite approved to recent appointment of Col. Mears as the single head and Superintendent of the Alaska Ry. etc. and it also had an editorial strongly defending the Commission's past work, expenses, waste etc. The two articles were in opposite vein - &amp; this evening Edes, heretofore the head of the Alaska Engineering Com. came in on the train from the Outside - as consulting engineer
Diary 31, 1919 September 10-11	-10th - Dinner tonight at Frisco Cafe with Dr. Boyle, Mrs. Herron, Miss Byles &amp; Bedill - Took testimony of the He is U.S. Dep. Marshall &amp; both he and his wife - at the suggestion of Crice, Grigsbys atty. refused to testify for whom they voted! -11th - Getting depositions put in shape - paying bills etc.

	The evidence taken here by A G. Thompson is not very important &amp; not very well taken -- There is but little in it for me. Took dinner tonight at Mrs. Herrons - Dr. Boyle, Mifs Byles &amp; Bedill, also present. Nothing about the boat.
Diary 31, 1919 September 11	11th continued. Harry Taylor, one of my old friends - a roughneck miner - came in to see me today - he stutters dreadfully - &amp; said - "Judge - here is a box of cigars and I've got a hundred dollars that I dont need - if you want it you can have it. It costs - money to fight contests - and I dont need it" I thanked him &amp; told him I had enough to get by on -- but I was pleased to have him make the offer. It was kindly &amp; earnestly meant, and I was really pleased at his friendly disposition. I find much sentiment- of that kind here &amp; but little that is friendly except in the ranks of the Ry. Com. forces!
Diary 31, 1919 September 12-13	-12th - Paid A. G. Thompson $60.00 for taking depositions &amp; paid all other bills for same - Bot my ticket for "Alameda" for tomorrow - for Cordova. Am leaving matter of defending against depositions of Grigsby here, with Boyle, Thompson &amp; Regar - the latter a young attorney , etc. My neuralgia is slowly getting better but I have had much pain &amp; it is going out of my face slowly. -13- Left Anchorage this afternoon on the "Alameda" - down Cook Inlet for Seward -- nothing new - comfortable on boat.
Diary 31, 1919 September 14	-14- Rolled heavily in a "Southeastern" - entered Resurrection Bay this afternoon - went to the Seward - George Sexton's hotel - Ritchie, &amp; the court officials went out on the Alameda for Valdes - Poor "Ike Evans, Dep. Marshal - killed last week by Dempsey - a highwayman - funeral out on Alameda, also. Raining. Just before I left Anchorage I received a telegram from Reed, Valdes, saying that notice of taking depositions had been served on him - for Cordova 19th, Anchorage 23rd, Seldovia 19th , Kodiak 22, and Afognak 23rd. Have been
Diary 31, 1919 September 14-15	14 trying today to figure out matter of sending some one to westward points - as I have Cordova &amp; Anchorage covered - I would like to go westward - but fear I may get "marooned" &amp; dare not run that risk - but so far have no one to go. -15- Sextons Hotel - watchful waiting - no boats either way for a week - Am trying to persuade Ray - L.V. to go on the "Watson" &amp; take depositions of

	Grigsbys witnesses to the westward - he is trying to get Regar, of Anchorage, to return here &amp; go on the trip - no one wants the trip.
Diary 31, 1919 September 16-17	-16- Same as yesterday - spent the evening at the Episcopal residence visiting Mr. Zinn, minister, who took dinner with me at the restaurant. Telegram from Regar saying he cannot go on the "Watson." Also telegram in answer to one from me to George Dooley, at Cordova. Am telegraphing him to take evidence &amp; defend my rights where Donohoe takes depositions on 19th for Grigsby. -17- Same as yesterday . Sent final telegram instruction to Geo. Dooley, Cordova, about depositions there to be taken on the 19th.
Diary 31, 1919 September 18	-18th - I have arranged with George Sexton to go on the "Watson" to Kodiak, Afognak, &amp; Seldovia &amp; act for me in taking depositions in Contest Case. The "Watson" came in tonight at 9 p.m. &amp; will go out early in the morning. Hayes, Notary Public, and a Mr. Almy, will be the other members of the party - &amp; represent my opponents - I gave Sexton $50.00 - his ticket to Kodiak cost $16.00 Recd. a nice letter from Debbie &amp; now look forward to taking the "Northwestern" for Juneau, -if I can get by Cordova, where some work waits.
Diary 31, 1919 September 19-21	-19th - The "Watson" did not leave Seward until noon today I instructed Sexton to make a formal objection to taking the testimony of witnesses at Seldovia on the 20th notice being for 19th . This afternoon paper says Grigsby is in Seattle coming to Alaska to assist in taking the depositions!! -20- Nothing doing - just waiting. 21st Sunday. It began to blow from the north about midnight &amp; this morning the sun is shining in a clear sky - every mountain peak is sharp cut - &amp; the highest have a light covering of new fallen snow.
Diary 31, 1919 September 22-23	-22- "Northwestern" in harbor &amp; left Seward on her this afternoon at 4 oclock - Bob Heckman &amp; wife from Ketchikan are on board - he is making a political tour of the Territory. We ran into Port Ashton at 9 p.m. &amp; laid up for the night taking on fish. -23rd - Valdes about noon - the court officials - Bunnell, Brenneman etc. got on board going to Cordova - Ritchie &amp; Reed also, - Arrived at Cordova at 8:30 pm. George Dooley says that my opponents got

Diary 31, 1919 September 23-25	23 evidence of 8 illegal votes on us in their depositions - left such arrangements as I could make for taking their depositions at McCarthy etc. Recd. letter &amp; copies of our depositions from Henry T. Ray from Fairbanks - a good record &amp; I sent them a night letter of good cheer. -24- Left Cordova early this morning - Northwestern &amp; had a fine days run past Cape St. Elias. -25th - Fine day at sea - entered Icy Strait at 5 oclock this afternoon &amp; will arrive at Juneau about midnight
Diary 31, 1919 September 26	-26th - Arrived in Juneau at 1:30 a.m. - &amp; went to the Gastineau Hotel. Slept till noon &amp; have spent the afternoon &amp; evening with my friends considering the evidence &amp; that of my opponents in Contest Case. Grigsby is here &amp; served notice of taking Indian depositions here in Juneau tomorrow. Dinner with Valentine. Recd. two long delayed letters from Debbie - Ed. Russell tells me he saw her &amp; Darrell in Seattle. Ed. Russell is packing his newspaper plant - the Dispatch - &amp; will ship it to Seattle - this will leave Juneau with only one paper - the "Empire," Troy's paper.
Diary 31, 1919 September 27-29	-27- Taking of Grigsby depositions set for today went over to Tuesday evening by agreement. Nothing much doing - the "Empire" is roasting me editorially every day. -28th - Dinner with Mr. &amp; Mrs. Sutherland - the Cobbs &amp; a Mr. Robinson present. Preparing for examination witnesses Tuesday - Sent telegrams of inquiry to Boyle, Anchorage &amp; Sexton, Seward. -29th - Nothing exciting - getting ready for depositions tomorrow etc.
Diary 31, 1919 September 30-October 1	-30th - Recd. telegrams from Boyle &amp; Sexton saying Grigsbys agent got no evidence of illegal votes at Kodiak, Afognak or Seldovia. Took depositions of several witnesses - the witnesses of Grigsby - &amp; nothing new - adjourned till 11 oclock tomorrow. -Octo. 1st - Took balance Juneau depositions for Grigsby today I think they do not hurt my case &amp; are immaterial. We will both go to Ketchikan on the SS. Watson tonight. Things here in pretty good shape - attorneys will do the rest.

Diary 31, 1919 October 2-8	-Octo 2nd Enroute to Ketchikan -- the -- "funny-man" set Grigsby &amp; me side by side at the dining table - but we were so friendly &amp; good natured - enjoyed each others society go fully - that the joke - if any - was on the funny man.                  Met Griggs &amp; party just back from their Katmai expedition etc. -8th - Working on case etc all week &amp; today took depositions of several Grigsby witnesses - he scored 2 illegal votes on me - they merely voted out of their precincts. Sent telegrams of inquiry tonight to Anchorage, Fairbanks &amp; Nome - for information as to what opponents are doing.
Diary 31, 1919 October 12-14	-12- Took balance of Grigsby depositions yesterday - he gained 4 illegal votes on me - not enough. If my theory and law is upheld by the Com. I will beat him for the facts are with me strong - We are finished -- except he wants to take evidence of 4 more witnesses at Wrangell. I hope to go south soon -- telegrams from over Territory show he has done very little. 13th Grigsby gave Notice of taking more depositions here on 15th. Dinner last (Sunday) evening with Mr. &amp; Mrs. Heckman - very pleasant. -14th - Testimony of witnesses for Grigsby in Wrangell today.
Diary 31, 1919 October 15-25	-15- Dep. more witnesses today - Bob Heckman employed me to secure expert advice about his right to require users of floating traps to pay him for infringement of patents - paid me $250. retainer. Left Ketchikan at 4 pm on the "City of Seattle" - for Seattle Grigsby also on board. -17th - Reached Seattle, Found Debbie &amp; Darrell waiting for me at Frye Hotel. -25- Took final depositions of-witnesses - Lomen, Frawley, Bakke, Nome, Blix, Copper Center, Kraft, Kodiak, etc. This ends the taking of evidence in Contest Case. We must now go to Wash. D.C. to prepare briefs &amp; arguments.
Diary 31, 1919 October 28- November 4	-28th - Had my tooth extracted, by Dr. Myor, &amp; broken jaw from Valdes assault repaired. He says I barely escaped a general paralysis of the right side of my face &amp; head - the nerves were not destroyed but almost. -Nov. 3rd - Settled acts. etc. &amp; ready to go East tomorrow.
